Dear Stan:

If your ears buz ocassionally, it's only that when Jack [redacted] visits me in Miami, or I visit him in Las Vegas, we seem to chat very proudly about you.

I'm active in the American Legion, one of the 66,000 members in Florida. The newly elected Department Commander is a friend of mine with whom I served in the Florida Legislature.

I have been empowered to invite you as guest speaker at our State Conference, November 21-22, 1980, at the Holliday Inn Surfside in Orlando. Should you be able to schedule yourself to be with us the evening of the 21st or morning of the 22nd, you will make an old classmate very proud.

Stan, keep up the good work. If you ever find need to garnish Florida support for any issues, I would be more than willing to oblige.

My very best wishes to Pat.

Sincerely,

Dear Ted:

Thanks so much for your June 30th letter and your invitation for me to address the American Legion State Conference. It was nice to hear from you!

As much as I'd like to see you and accommodate your request, I simply must decline. My plate is full for the foreseeable future and it's just impossible to take on any additional commitments at this time.

Thanks for thinking of me, however. The Turners send best wishes.

Yours,

/s/ Stansfield Turner
